

How To Start An AAU Basketball Team

Ready to start a new AAU basketball team? Follow these simple steps and review the information provided below.

The Inland Empire AAU and Yakima Valley Sports Authority DO NOT place kids on teams

AAU TEAMS' RESPONSIBILITIES:

- *forming team (including players and coaches)
- *getting practice times at local gyms
- *purchasing uniforms
- *deciding which events to participate in and how to pay for them (i.e. – split the cost or get a sponsor)

Once you have players and a coach, everyone needs to purchase an AAU membership card. Go to www.aausports.org and click JOIN AAU to get your membership cards. Youth athlete cards are $20 and non-athlete (coach) cards are $55 – for a 1 year membership. Two memberships are also available for $75.

AAU membership cards provide a secondary medical insurance coverage during AAU sanctioned practices and events.

All AAU coaches (non-athletes) go thru a background screening before they are issued an AAU membership.

All teams need to be members of an AAU Club. The AAU Club membership provides your club members facility insurance for use during practices. AAU Clubs are $30 and will provide you with a generic insurance certificate to give to the school district or church your team is practicing in. If they require their name on the insurance certificate, you will need to purchase the Third Party Insurance Certificate for an additional $35.

Once your team is all registered, you are ready to participate in any AAU sanctioned event. Events held in Eastern Washington and Idaho (and a few in Oregon) are posted on our local AAU website at www.ieaaau.org. Each event director has the right to have different rules and regulations. For questions on specific events, be sure to contact that event director.

A few odds & ends:

1. ROSTER SIZE: The YVSA does not have any rules regarding how many players are on a roster. In order to avoid game forfeits for not having enough players, we suggest having at least 8 players committed to your team.
2. LEAGUE TRAVEL: The YVSA hosts leagues throughout the year in gyms from Ellensburg to Benton City. We try to place teams in appropriate divisions for not only good competition based on their skill level, but also geographically. If you are from the Tri Cities and you are scheduled to play a team from Yakima (or north of Yakima), we will try to at least have you meet halfway in Sunnyside or Grandview.
3. HOOP HEIGHT: Our gyms do not have hoops that can be lowered, so all divisions will play on regulation size 10 foot hoops.
4. UNIFORMS: All players need to have uniform tops that are the same color and have numbers on them. Reversible uniforms are not required, but do come in handy.

Below you will find the Yakima Valley Sports Authority AAU Club's rules.
These rules only apply to events we are hosting.
